WATER IN RIVER NEAR LEASBURG

Cruces Man Has Pet Raccoon; Road Matters.

Las Cruces, N. M., Oct. 5 .- Water is reported in the river and in the gov-errment canal from the Leasburg dam, but what there is is very muddy and lmost brick red in color. There is not enough to reach even to the division point of the Las Cruces and Mesilla ditches, but it is thought that this is the forerunner of a larger supply.

J. I. McCullough, M. J. Daly and Charles E, Head returned yesterday from the Stephenson-Bennett mine in Organ mountain mining district, and this morning went to El Paso, from where Mr. Daly and Mr. Head will return to their homes. Mr. Head is vice president of the company owning the mine and lives at McAlester, Okla. Mr. Daly is a mining expert from Salt Lake City, Utah, and came down with Mr. Head to make an examination of the mine. It is understood that as soon as Mr. Head reaches ome and can call a meeting of the directors of the company, money will be raised to pump the water from he mine and work will be resumed on the property.

R. S. B. Washington of El Paso is in the city to present to the county amissioners the other side of the La Mesa-Mesquite road question. Mr. Vashington owns a farm of 175 acres ear La Mesa and is vitally interested n the route of the road.

Tom Edwards, who was excused from jury duty on account of the seri-ous illness of his wife, returned to his home in Silver City.

Samuel J. Cawley of New York city, who is ex-president and treasurer of the Umbrella trust, returned to his home by way of El Paso. Mr. Cawley is interested in the Philadelphia company's mining properties in the Organ ountains east of here, and came down several days ago to look over the camp and to visit his daughter, Mrs. P. B. W. J. Woodhull has a pet coon at his quarters in the Park hotel that has attracted considerable attention lately. The animal was caught when it was quite young and has been tamed so that it follows people around like a dog, and likes to be petted just as a kitten does. Capt. Woodhull, however, is in a quandary just at present over his pet on account of the fact that there are a number of newly hatched chickens in the hotel yard and the coon has taken too much of a liking to the little things. He was found under the veranda with one yesterday and had been making a hearty meal. So it has developed into a question of either getting rid of the coon or the chick-

Breaks Up Cold

New Method With Wonderful Results.

Cut out this prescription Madam; you are the one that must look after the health of the household, and you are the one in these days of high prices that must manage things economically. Someone in the family may have a hard cold this winter; it may be in the head, perhaps in the chest.

It matters not where; here is some advice and a prescription that break up any cold in a few hours, and without taking harmful drugs or strong drinks into the stomach,

First of all, look after the bowels. The tongue will show whether the liver is right or not. If the bowels need attention, a good dose of castor oll made tasteless with a little orange juice will do the trick, although any reliable cathartic will do Then try this economical treatment;
